Bulletin Announcements

Please email bulletin@olbh.org by noon on Tuesday for the following Sunday bulletin.

Q: In the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed, why has "one in being with the Father" been changed to "consubstantial with the Father?"

A: The new translation is more in keeping with the ancient Latin text of the Creed and a more accurate translation.

The bishops at the Council of Nicea (AD 325), in order to ensure that Jesus was professed as the eternal Son of God, equal to the Father, stated that he is "the Son of God, begotten from the Father, the only-begotten, that is from the substance of the Father, God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, the same substance (homoousion) with the Father..." The Creed of the Council of Constantinople (381), which is professed at all Sunday Masses and Solemnities within the Catholic Church, similarly stated: "We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of the same substance (homoousion) with the Father."

When these two ancient creeds were translated into Latin, the term "homoousion" was rendered as "consubstantialem," that is, "the same substance of the Father." Prior to the Second Vatican Council, the Latin "consubstantialem" was rendered as "consubstantial" within the English translation of the Creed. Many theologians and the Holy See thought that the term "consubstantial" was more in keeping with the Latin tradition and a more literal and accurate translation than the more recent "one in being."

This is in keeping with the mind of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, which published an Instruction, entitled Liturgiam Authenticam. It stated: "Certain expressions that belong to the heritage of the whole or of a great part of the ancient Church, as well as others that have become part of the general human patrimony, are to be respected by a translation that is as literal as possible"

VHS Videos added to Parish Library

One hundred fifty additional audio visual materials are now available in our parish library. After the OLBH staff did some reorganizing this spring, several sets of videos, VHS format, have been shifted from the resource room to the parish library so that parishioners can use them more easily. The majority of the materials are for children, but about a dozen videos are applicable to adult topics and will soon be processed and ready. These children's videos include both animated stories and those with real actors. Several sets of the videos could be classified as portrayals of Bible stories, but others are focused more on tales about worthwhile virtues or are dramatizations of fictional stories. Two sets are also designed for youth including the "On The Air" and "Unfiltered: A Look at Life's Struggles from a Teenager's Perspective." All materials can be borrowed by simply signing your name on the checkout card and leaving it in the little gray box beside the library computer. Thank you to all the parishioners who have donated these videos to the library.

World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests

July 1, 2011 – Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Please pray for our priests, in thanksgiving for all they are and do, for their life, work and ministry, and in particular for their holiness and sanctification: Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5). May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priests be holy, conformed to the Most Sacred Heart of your Son, Jesus Christ, and filled with the fire of your love, seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen. Saint John Vianney, pray for us.

For the Ride Home

~ By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- ❖ who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, (Deuteronomy 8:16)
- ❖ with the best of wheat he fills you. (Psalm 147:14)
- ❖ The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? 1 Corinthians 10:16)
- ❖ unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. (John 6:53)

Reflection

- ❖ Is developing a mature spirit possible without living in a community?
- ❖ Is being a Christian possible outside of a community?
- ❖ Is being a Christian community (the Body of Christ) possible without the Eucharist (the Body of Christ)?
- ❖ Are sacraments individual or community events? Can a person receive a sacrament outside of a community?
- ❖ How does your parish fulfill the role of being the Body of Christ?

We tend to think of individual human beings as unconnected until they choose to become connected either because it is useful or because of some natural attraction. But there is an important biblical alternative to this interpretation, in many ways countercultural. We are all children of the same God, with the same earth as our common home. We are inter-related and interdependent. We have no choice about whether we live in relationship. Our only choices are whether we tell the truth about our social existence and whether we live in ways that redeem the relational web that is always and forever the matrix of our becoming.

It (Body of Christ) is a way of being in the world with one another and with Christ because of who God is. The body of Jesus in life, the Body of Christ in the Easter event, the Body of Christ who we are, the Body of Christ in the Eucharist, and the Body of Christ that we become more fully in the resurrection of the body – all these belong together in Body's (of Christ) total meaning.¹

Reflection Questions for Next Week

Jesus refreshes and strengthens us for ministry.

Children: When you are generous, honest, and loving, how do you know it is Jesus who helps you do that?

Youth: As you grow in your ability to love and make sacrifices for others, how do you find comfort and peace in knowing Jesus Christ?

Adults: As you go about your daily life, dying in love for others, how do you experience Christ giving you consolation and peace?
